New and Improved Health Science Advising Website!

During the summer, your pre-health advisors worked with LSIT to make some much-needed changes to our Health Science Advising website. We kept quite a bit of the great information from the previous site and added some supplemental information and resources that we think will help students make well-informed decisions while as they prepare for their careers as future healthcare providers.

When students visit the new website for the first time, <https://healthsciences.duels.ucsb.edu/home>, please

1. Join the pre-health listserv so they receive emails from our office
2. View their pre-health track or explore other tracks
3. Explore the information and resources under the Current Students section.
4. Students who are considering applying to professional schools should explore the Application Info section.

Lastly, we encourage students to review all the information that applies to them, especially the information found in the Advising Appointments section, prior to scheduling an appointment with a pre-health advisor. This will help to ensure each student gets the most out of each advising session they attend.

If you have questions, please email us at prehealthinfo@ltsc.ucsb.edu.
